

Dear Parents and Carers,

New guidance has come out for children under 5 for eating grapes.

If including grapes in their lunchbox please always cut them length ways into quarters to create smaller, more manageable pieces.

This significantly reduces the risk of choking.

